RECOVERED

On October 18 2010, Constable Kent Hall of the West Kelowna RCMP recovered a 2003 Larson adrift on Okanagan Lake. The vessel had no documentation on board nor had it been reported missing. A concerted effort by West Kelowna RCMP, Rayburn's Marine World, the Pleasure Craft Licensing Center in Fredericton New Brunswick and the Vancouver Police Marine Unit, led to the identification of the vessel and the subsequent return to its lawful owner. The investigation is ongoing.
