RECOVERED/STOLEN VESSEL

The 2003 Novurania stolen from Nanaimo on July 5th, has been recovered in Chemainus, on Vancouver Island. The vessel was found hidden on a logging road in the area, along with other reported property that had been stolen from island residents over the past two weeks. The owner of the vessel reports that members of the RCMP ERT took a male into custody in relation to the recovery. The owner also wishes to thank everyone for keeping an eye out for his vessel.
