STOLEN BOATS CANADA

(Public Service - Non Profit)

Jamie Gibson 778-229-6932

RECOVERED

On March 16th 2011, a male contacted Chris Small of Chris Small Marine Surveyors to state that he had been on a property in Langley and had seen a 15' Polaris that was listed on Stolen Boats Canada web page as "Stolen". Chris Small contacted the VPD Marine Unit and advised them of the information. On March 19th, members attended a farm in Langley and identified the 2003 Polaris pictured below. The vessel had been stolen from Captain's Cove in 2007. The engine and trailer remain outstanding. Please forward any information that can be of assistance to Cst Jamie Gibson at 604-817-1946 or Crime Stoppers at 1-800-222-8477.
