RECOVERED

Kelowna Mounties seized two boats over the weekend that police believe to be stolen and their Hull Identification Numbers altered. The Kelowna RCMP checked a vessel at the Eldorado boat launch, On Aug. 4 at about 3 p.m."The F23 Tomcat was found to have an altered HIN and its corresponding trailer had no visible VIN. The pair was seized as stolen property and a 31 year old Surrey man was released on a Promise to Appear for Court in September," said Const. Kris Clark. That event was followed by a similar one Aug. 5 at around 12:45 a.m. That time the Kelowna RCMP along with the Integrated Gang Task Force conducted a vehicle stop on a Dodge Ram pulling a boat and trailer. "The Sanger Black Scorpion appeared to have an altered HIN and was seized for further investigation," said Clark.
