Stolen 2007 Bayliner 185BR Recovered

On 2008 July 23rd North Vancouver RCMP members checking vessels at Kate's Park boat ramp noted some inconsistencies regarding a Bayliner 185BR and took photos prior to allowing the occupants to proceed. A joint investigation with the RCMP North Vancouver and Vancouver Police Marine Unit with assistance from Aaron Fell of Olympic Boat Center, Surrey and Darrell Richardson of Service Canada Pleasure Craft Licensing in Fredericton NB, determined the vessel to be stolen from Coquitlam BC. On July 26th Members of the Vancouver Police Marine Unit located the vessel in False Creek. The vessel and trailer were seized and two parties placed into custody. The HIN had been removed and the vessel's blue trim had been painted black. A Vessel License had been fraudulently duplicated from an unrelated local vessel of the same model. A joint investigation between North Vancouver RCMP and VPD Marine Unit continues.
