RECOVERED

On 2010 June 23rd VPD Marine Unit was contacted by the False Creek Harbour Master regarding a red inflatable that had been left at the Fisherman's Wharf. A subsequent investigation determined that the vessel had been reported lost on March 8th between Passage Island and Point Atkinson. It is believe the vessel may have subsequently been used in several vessel break and enters in the False Creek area. Anyone who may have seen this vessel being operated after March 8th is requested to contact the Vancouver Police Marine Unit.
